Latham closed with a most beautiful, eloquent and truthful eulogy on the deceased, when the Senate adjourned.

St. Louis, Dec. 14.—A great fire has occured in Charleston, South Carolina, which has laid one half of that city in ruins. The Catholic Cathedral of that city is destroyed.

The fire and ruin are attributed to incendiarism on the part of the Slaves, who are said to be in a state of insurrection.

A battle took place at Pocahontas, [near Cheat Mountain,] Va., on the 12th, between seven hundred Federal troops under the command of Colonel Milroy, and 2,000 Rebels under General Johnston [doubtless the Johnston who commanded a Division on the Potomac — Eds. Cin.] The battle resulted in the killing of two hundred Rebels and thirty Federalists.

The victory of the latter is complete.

St. Louis, Dec. 16—The English papers are exceedingly belligerent in their remarks in reference to the arrest of Mason and Slidell. They say the sentiment of the British Cabinet, in relation to the matter is denunciatory of the act of arrest.

In relation to the same matter, and the attitude of the English press thereon, the people and Cabinet at Washington are defiant to the last degree.

The President favors a conciliatory course with England.

The intelligence regarding the destructive fire at Charleston, S. C., is confirmed. The conflagration is the largest ever known on the American continent. The offices of the Charleston Courier and Mercury were both destroyed.

The [expected] demand for the release of Mason and Slidell causes great excitement, but the sentiment of defiance is universal.

Congress will adjourn on Thursday next, the 19th, for two weeks, to enable the members to spend the holidays at home.

In the Lower House of Congress, yesterday, some hard words passed between Fouke of Illinois, and Conway of Kansas. It is feared that something serious will grow out of it.

The bark Agnes, arrived at Baltimore, reports a fight between the pirate Sumter and the United States gunboat Iroquois, off Martinique.

Quincy, December 17.—The Cabinet have considered the matter (of the Mason and Slidell arrest) and think that newspaper bluster is not a true indication of the intention of the British Government, but the impression is that England will make a demand for the release of Mason and Slidell.

Quincy, December 16—p. m.—The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch says that the President has no official information from England relative to the Mason and Slidell affair; but thought that diplomatic correspondence would settle the matter without war.

The Union sentiment in Eastern Virginia is said to be rapidly increasing.

Sherman offered a resolution that the Secretary of War shall furnish the Senate with a copy of all correspondence between Gen. Scott and Gen. Patterson. Agreed to.

In the House, Elliott's resolution, proposing emancipation of slaves of rebels, caused a warm debate.

Harding of Kentucky made a strong speech in opposition.

Dispatches from Tipton, Mo., say that our troops had received orders yesterday to hold themselves ready at a moment's notice. Gen. Pope, at the head of his forces, was already marching towards Warrensburg for the purpose of cutting off Price, who is trying to unite with Rains and Stein at Lexington. A battle is expected soon.

The gunboat Connecticut, has arrived at Fortress Monroe from Port Royal. The reported occupation of Fort Pulaski by the Federal forces, is not true; but it is expected that it will fall into our hands soon. Our troops now occupying Tybee Island, will operate on Fort Pulaski.

St. Louis, Dec. 17th—10 p. m.—We have information that Fort Pulaski is in possession of the Federal troops.—[Fort Pulaski commands the entrance to Savannah, Georgia.]

It is reported through rebel channels that a battle has been fought at New Orleans between the Federal and Rebel forces; but we have no particulars in regard to it.

The losses at the great fire in Charleston are estimated to amount to $7,000,000.

Lord Lyons, British Minister at Washington, has received no dispatches from his Government in relation to the Slidell and Mason affair.

Quincy, Dec. 18—P. M.—The steamer Jura arrived at Portland yesterday from Liverpool, [bringing dates to Saturday, 7th December.]

Things look warlike in England. A large number of troops were under orders to leave for Canada. The American shipping interest was disastrously affected.

St. Louis, Dec. 19, 1861.—Commercial letters from England by the last European steamers express the opinion that the English Government will probably ask an apology for the recent act of Commodore Wilkes in arresting Mason and Slidell.—[According to this, the best informed classes in England do not anticipate hostilities between Great Britain and the United States on account of the recent arrest—Ed. Herald.

The Federal troops are moving, in immense force, towards the Tennessee river, from Kentucky.

As regards the battle of New Orleans, [before reported] circumstantial evidence received here seems to substantiate the report that New Orleans has been captured by the Federal troops. We have not full particulars, or facts fully confirmatory, but the belief here is that New Orleans is in the hands of the Federals.

A battle is pending, at any moment, in Missouri, between the Federal troops and rebel forces.

The Confederate horde, under Price, is certainly caught in a trap.

Capt. James Miller is now Captain of the Unio, which is in the Yamhill trade—having bought out the stock and interest of Capt. Apperson. Both these men are decidedly popular, and have the best wishes of all their acquaintance.

"We were told yesterday," says the long haired youth of the Advertiser, "that one of the inducements held out to volunteers at Salem, is that they will be stationed in the mining regions, where they can try their luck in mining." The long haired youth thinks this is very naughty, and it is not at all improbable he will do something about it.

CHRISTMAS BALL.—To inaugurate the [illegible] Christmas, a grand ball will come off this evening at the Union Armory Hall, First street. Great preparations have been made, and no doubt it will be a splendid one. The Turners also give one at their hall to-morrow night. That, too, will be a fine affair.

SPORT.—Snow balling was one of the sports indulged in by the juveniles and b'hoys in the city yesterday. Local, while on his mission after an item, found these missiles at one time thick and thin flying about his head and not being prepared to return the fire he retreated "in good order," protected in the rear by his umbrella.

The steamer Multnomah is again upon duty. Capt. Hoyt is in his old position of Captain—a very important fact to all travelers between Portland and Astoria.

The Willamette river at the Falls, at the late rise, was 55 feet above its lowest stage so says the Argus.

From the Nez Perces Mines.

Mr. A. Wright, of Aurora, arrived here from the Nez Perces mines two or three days ago. The history of his experience in the mines amounts to this: he went up last summer to the Nez Perces mines. Before he reached there persons of his acquaintance, from this valley, returning, pronounced the mines a great humbug. Mr. Wright had gone with the determination of seeing the mines himself, and went ahead. He prospected diligently—sometimes he was encouraged and sometimes disheartened—at length he discovered a good thing. He struck a good prospect. His company went to work pretty late in the season and found they could make to the hand from $20 to $25 a day.—They worked on. The news of the discoveries in Salmon river valley came to them.—Mr. Wright's brother, one of the company left for the Salmon river mines—struck rich diggings there—and at the last accounts was doing wonderfully well there. Mr. Wright and the remainder of the company continued working at the Nez Perces mines until the snows, melted by heavy rains, filled the mines with a flood that compelled them to desist from working. Mr. Wright then returned to his home to spend the winter,—designing to return to his claim early in the spring. He knows he has a sure thing in his claim, and does not like to give it up even for the superior prospects on Salmon river. He will make up in industry, economy and frugality for the superior yield of the Salmon river mines. We are of the opinion that Mr. Wright is a sensible man.

Mr. RUFUS HENRY who worked in Cariboo last summer, says he shall go the coming spring to the Salmon river mines. He is an experienced and successful miner.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Of all the causes, the first great cause
Springs from the Breach of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not, when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all [illegible] arising from derangement of the sexual organs, [illegible] Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, [illegible] Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots [illegible] Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, [illegible] upon the face, Pains in [illegible] irregularities—and all improp[illegible] matters not from what [illegible] standing or old [illegible] in a shorter time [illegible] other treat[illegible] the skill of eminent [illegible] The medicines [illegible] entirely vegetable [illegible] mercury or [illegible] Europe, the Atlantic [illegible] from the jaws of [illegible] in the last stage of the above [illegible] by their physicians [illegible] the afflicted, [illegible] a speedy and [illegible] the greatest enemies [illegible] consumption, scrofula [illegible] would be a terror to the [illegible] scarcely ever effected [illegible] the hands of incompetent [illegible] cure the disease, but ruin the [illegible] system with mercury, which, with [illegible] suffer into a rapid consumption. But should the [illegible] not cause death [illegible] the disease is entailed upon children who are born with feeble constitutions, and the [illegible] of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in [illegible] Ulcers, Eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females, treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business Correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease who, having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude, make known their case and remedial agent, and their statement are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their publicity and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted:

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of [illegible] those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Borne down by the [illegible] symptoms incident to the vicious practices of [illegible] the passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, [illegible] to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas, after a few weeks, and in several instances months of their treatment, I found, to my unutterable horror that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture, and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice my head became clear and my ideas collected; the constant pain in my back and limbs, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study and want of resolution, the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that once under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1856. Signed
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 30, 1855.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my constitution, as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves, so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stoppage of those emissions which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charges, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours,

THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the disease, against which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger, as ones who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
